

Rebellion in Fairyland 2
Part 1, Chapters 1-3 "At Grammy's"
PLOT

Besides developing characters, authors also have to tell a story (PLOT: what happens). In these first chapters, Karina and her friends were invited to a birthday celebration in Fairyland. Before they could go, though, they had to overcome several obstacles, difficulties that might keep them from going. List the page, what the difficulty was, and (in parentheses) how they solved it. Fill in the missing items from the examples below:

VOCABULARY

Sometimes there will be words in stories that you don't know. Authors try to include enough clues in the sentence to give you a hint of what the words mean. Those hints are called "context clues."

Below are four words from Part 1 (chapters 1-3) that you may not have known before. The underlined word is used in the sentence (context) from the book followed by a simple definition.

Directions: Look at the underlined word in the sentence, read the whole sentence in the book, and think about the clues.

Would you have guessed the meaning from the clues?

Finally, write your OWN new sentence, using the word.

1. Context p 2: "... they arrived and brought a bit of chaos with them" (confusion, disorder)

Your sentence: _____

2. Context p 10: "... she was practical and analytical, wanting to examine and understand how things worked." (thinking things through carefully)

THEME: Setting Goals/Making Plans

As you've grown older, you have more ideas as to what you want to do. Many times you have to plan ahead to make things happen as you want. Karina and Katie had to think ahead and arrange to solve various problems before they could go to Fairyland. Can you think of examples when you, or someone you know, would have to make step-by-step plans in order to succeed at some goal?

List below at least three real-life examples:

**You may need fewer or more than 5 steps**

CHARACTERS

Part of enjoying a book is getting to know the characters. Fill in the chart below as you learn more about each character. Just write words or phrases you find that give you a feeling about each character (descriptions, what they did or said, what others say). For each entry, write the page number where you found it, so you can easily find it again. Each was started for you. Find at least three or more for each now, and then add to the list as you learn more about the characters in later chapters. See how many you can find. By the time you finish, you will know these characters pretty well!
