Vocabulary

Look over the list of words from the book below. Choose TWO that you didn't know before or that sound interesting to you. In each section below, (1) write your chosen word carefully; (2) write a sentence using that word correctly (check the book page for context clues if you are not sure what is meant); and (3) draw a picture illustrating what is happening in your sentence. It is okay to be funny or silly, just make sure it works with the definition of the word.

THEME: Fairness

Empathy and Fairness are themes in the book. As the girls got to know the ogres and trolls, they developed empathy for them (understanding their feelings, thoughts, and culture). Due to their understanding, the girls wanted to help make Fairyland more fair to the ogres and trolls. Nicole and Karina led the King and the ogres and trolls to work out an agreement. Working together for agreement is the process called mediation.

What was the first step in the mediation process? (p104)

CHARACTERS

Choose a character from the story who sparks your imagination.

1. Draw him/her below carefully as YOU imagine him/her to be, remembering as many details as you can. Draw with pencil outline, then fill in with colored pencils to make it colorful.
2. Use the rest of the page to begin writing a story about that character. What might happen next to him/her? Or what happened before? You can include other characters in your story, if you like. No right or wrong: just make it up!
