

THEME: Regret

Regret means realizing that you did something wrong, and wishing that you hadn't done it. All of us make mistakes and wish we could undo them. When we can't change it, we can only apologize and try to make amends the best we can. The Sorcerer and the Commander of the Palace Guard both felt regret. Why? What did they do about it?

The Sorcerer regretted that he had _____

What did the Sorcerer do to try to make up for what he had done?

Can you think of a time you regretted something you had done?

Explain: _____

What did you do (or should you have done) to make up for it? _____
